The mysterious Area15 will bring art, sci-fi, and nightlife under one roof

Area15 is promising a little bit of everything -- art, music, retail, restaurants, bars, nightlife and corporate event space -- all in one immersive package. The massive 126,000-square-foot structure is under construction near Interstate 15 and Desert Inn. Little is known about exactly who and what will be inside, but Meow Wolf is confirmed as the anchor tenant. The New Mexico-based art collective funded by George R.R. Martin gained fame for bold, interactive installations, including the intriguing House of Eternal Return exhibit space.
