

CODE OF CONDUCT

While AREA15 is an open and welcoming place, we have our rules and we take them rather seriously. Because we care about the safety and comfort of all who enter this exceptional place. Our team members are not shy about enforcing these guidelines. What does that mean? Violators may be refused entry, they may be asked to leave the property, and when the situation is called for, they may even be handed over to the authorities for arrest and prosecution to the extent permitted by law.

But nobody wants that, so here's what you should avoid (honestly, it's mostly common sense—you've got this):

1. Violations or attempted violations of the law
2. Any activity that threatens the safety of anyone
3. Any activity that threatens the well-being of the property
4. Any activity that disrupts the pleasant environment
5. Any activity that would disrupt the legitimate business of the property and its tenants
6. Use of profanity or vulgar, racist, discriminatory, threatening or offensive language of any kind
7. Unnecessarily blocking walkways, fire exits, roadways or storefronts
8. Running, horseplay or disorderly conduct of any nature
9. Loitering
10. The use or possession of weapons of any kind including any object that may be used as a weapon, including guns

12. Possession, use, or impairment by, of any person of drugs or other illegal contraband

In addition to the specific examples above, please be aware that AREA15 reserves the right to take action against any other conduct on our premises that we determine to be illegal, inappropriate, offensive, dangerous, or just plain rude.
